Volume II of AILA’s Immigration Regulations, current through March 1, 2012, covers CFR titles 6, 20, 22, 28, and 42, which comprise homeland security, employees’ benefits, foreign relations, judicial administration, and public health.

Shortly before this edition was finalized, the Department of Labor published a comprehensive final rule amending the regulations governing the certification of H-2B temporary or seasonal workers, and the enforcement of the obligations applicable to employers of such nonimmigrant workers (77 Fed. Reg. 10038 (2/21/12, eff. 4/23/12), amending 20 CFR §§655.1–655.99). However, the rule is not scheduled to take effect until after this edition has been released (4/23/12). Thus, at the back of this volume, we have included an updated version of 20 CFR §§655.1–655.99 that includes the amendments made by the final rule, as well as related sections of Title 29.

The layout of the CFR pages allows users to easily distinguish between subsections, paragraphs, clauses, etc., with nested text and more conspicuous headings at the subsection and paragraph level. The running headers remain detailed, allowing users to quickly find a needed provision. For ease of use, there is a detailed, combined, comprehensive index that includes references to both Volumes I and II of this CFR set.

As with all of AILA’s primary sources, corrections and updates to AILA’s Immigration Regulations will be available at www.aila.org/BookUpdates. Updates will include regulations amending the CFR as they are published in the Federal Register. We welcome any comments and suggestions you may have regarding any AILA publication. Please send your remarks to books@aila.org.
