

INDEX

IMMIGRATION LAW & THE FAMILY, 5TH ED.

Alphabetization is word-by-word (e.g., “R visas” precedes “REAL ID Act”)

A

Abused spouses and children. See Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

Addicts. See Drug abusers

Adjustment of status. See also Form I-485

- generally, 43–61
- after-acquired dependents, 47–49
- approvable petition on file by April 30, 2001, 47
- decision, 61
- discretionary action by USCIS, 50
- document checklist, 259–260
- family unity, defined, 46–47
- fiancé(e)s, 97–98
- filing fees, 60
- filing for, 16, 49, 170
- grandfathering of beneficiaries of I-130, I-526, or labor certification, 47–49
- historical background, 43–44
- inadmissibility, grounds of, 46
- interview process, 60–61
- to LPR, 1–2
- no penalty fee, 44–45, 46
- other forms and documents included in application packet, 58–60
- process, 50–61
- qualifying under §245(i), 45–49
- requirements for, 34–35, 43–50
- VAWA provisions, 217–222

Admission. See also Inadmissibility, grounds of by Customs and Border Protection, 35

Adopted children

- Hague Convention rules, 38–41
- requirements, 4

Affidavit of support

- generally, 179–201
- attorney-client relationship, 229–230
- change of address, 201
- completing form, 191–201
- asset counting, 197
- counting income, 192–193

- family unit size, determination of, 191–192
- federal poverty line, determination of, 191, 287–289
- income test, 193–196
- minimum income requirement, 191–199

conflict of interest, 241–243

death of petitioner, 11–13, 37–38, 185–186 discretion of USCIS and State Department, 199

family-based petitions

- who is affected, 180–181

- who is not affected, 181–182

fee bills for processing, 65, 261–264

Foreign Affairs Manual (FAM) change relegating Form I-864 to supporting rather than lead role in public charge analysis, 198–199 legally enforceable contracts, 186–191

- enforceable by federal, state, or other entity, 187–188

- enforceable by sponsored immigrant, 186–187

- enforcement in general, 188–190

- legally enforceable, 190–191

mandatory filing requirement, 180–191

overview, 179–180

sponsors, 182–185

- citizen, national, or LPR, 183

- defined, 182–185

- domiciled in U.S., 183–185

- joint sponsors, 198–199

substitute affidavit under Family Sponsor Immigration Act of 2002, 38 termination of contract, 199–201

timing of filing, 182

where to file, 201

withdrawing representation, 250–251

After-acquired dependents

- adjustment of status, 47–49

Age-out problem

- of beneficiaries, 13–14

Appeals

Appeals

reinstatement of removal, 151–152

Application for permanent residence adjustment of status eligibility, 34–35

consular processing requirements, 34–35

filing I-130 petition, 21–41

completing form, 24–29

eligibility to file, 18

fee, 33

Notice to Appear considerations. See Notice requirements

other forms and documents in packet, 32

supporting documentation, 29–32

where to file, 32–33

who may file, 23–24

inspection and admission by Customs and Border Protection, 35

petition revocation, 36–38

USCIS marriage interview, 33–34

Assault

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

Asylees and refugees

waivers of inadmissibility, 176–178

Attorney-client relationship

ethical issues, 228–230

B

Battered spouse. See also Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

waiver, 81–82

Beneficiaries

defined, 2

derivative beneficiaries, 8

principal beneficiaries, 8

Bonds

inadmissibility on economic grounds, posting to overcome, 131

Brothers or sisters

defined, 3

preference category and quota, 5–6

C

Cash assistance for income maintenance

public charge standard, 130

CDC Technical Instructions on mental disorders, 107–108

for Physical or Mental Disorders with Associated Harmful Behaviors and Substance-Related Disorders, 107–108

Change of address

affidavit of support, 201

Checklist

adjustment of status application, 259–260

Child Citizenship Act of 2000

exceptions for citizenship representations by children residing in U.S. prior to age 16, 137

Children. See also Child Status Protection Act

abduction (international), grounds of inadmissibility, 150

abused. See Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

age-out problem, 13–14

conditional residence provision, 76–77 under Form I-751, 87–88 crimes of moral turpitude committed under age of 18, 116

defined, 3–4

fiancé(e)'s children, K visas, 96–100

preference category and quota, 5–6

Child Status Protection Act (CSPA)

age-out problem, 13–14

children of LPRs and derivatives, status of, 15–18

children of USCs, status of, 15

effective date, 14, 19

naturalization and, 10

Citizenship

Child Citizenship Act of 2000, 137

false claims of, grounds of inadmissibility, 136–137

ineligibility, grounds of inadmissibility, 140–141

tax avoidance as reason to renounce, 149– 150

Commercialized vice

inadmissibility, grounds of, 118

Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools

certification by, 131

Communicable diseases

inadmissibility, grounds of, 106

waiver of, 110, 161–162

Communication

ethical issues, 234–235

Communist party

inadmissibility, grounds of, 124–126

Competence

ethical issues, 231–233

Conditional resident status

marriage and, 74–92. See also Marriage

Confidentiality

ethical issues, 235–238

Conflict of interest

affidavit of support, 241–243

current clients, 239–244

duty to withdraw from representation, 242–243

informed consent, 241–242

obtaining client's consent, 242

former clients, 243–244

Consular processing

generally, 64–72

appointment letter for immigrant visa applicants, 68–69, 271–272

document cover sheet, 269–270

electronic processing program, 67–68

fees, 71

instruction packet letter for immigrant visa applicants, 65–68

interviews, 69–71, 271–272

medical examination, 69, 273–275

National Visa Center, 64–65

overview, 63

required documentation, 66–67

requirements, 34–35

termination of registration, 71–72

Controlled substances. See also Drug abusers

drug traffickers, 117–118

Controlled Substances Act

inadmissibility of drug abusers of substances listed in act, 108

Convention Against Torture

reinstatement of removal exceptions, 151

Convictions

defined, 111

foreign convictions, 113–114

multiple convictions, 116–117

Criminal grounds

inadmissibility on, 110–120. See also Inadmissibility, grounds of
waivers, 165–166

Cross-chargeability

defined, 7–8

Cuban Adjustment Act (CAA)

abused spouses and children, 224

Cultural practices

traditional marriage arrangements and K-1 and K-2 visas, 96–97

Current clients

conflict of interest, 239–244

Customs and Border Protection inspection and admission by, 35

DDeath

of petitioner, 11–13, 36–37, 185–186

request to reinstate I-130 petition based on §204(l) relief, 11, 255– 256

of spouse

effect on conditional resident status, 80 permanent residence status after, 100– 103

Derivative beneficiaries

aging out, 17

defined, 8

Diligence

ethical issues, 231–233

Disclosure

ethical issues, 235–238

Divorce

priority dates and, 9–10

waiver of conditional resident status, 80

Documentary violations

inadmissibility, grounds of, 139–140

DOJ and Homeland Security rules on professional conduct for immigration practitioners, 246–249

Drug abusers

controlled substance violations as grounds of inadmissibility, 117

inadmissibility, grounds of, 108–109

Drug traffickers

inadmissibility, grounds of, 117–118

DUIs, aggravated

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

EEmployment authorization

VAWA self-petitioners, 217

Espionage

inadmissibility, grounds of, 121

Ethical issues

generally, 227–251

attorney-client relationship, 228–230

communication, 234–235

competence and diligence, 231–233

confidentiality, 235–238

conflict of interest, 239–244. See also Conflict of interest

document fraud, 247–249

Evidence

DOJ and Homeland Security rules on professional conduct for immigration practitioners, 246–249 fiduciary duty to nonclients, 230–231
informed consent, 241–242
meritorious claims, 245–246
overview, 227
sources of ethics rules, 227–228 terminating representation due to fraud or other reasons, 249–251 unrepresented third party, 244–245

Evidence

extreme hardship, Requests for Evidence (RFEs) in cases of, 171–172

Export control violations

inadmissibility, grounds of, 121

Expungements

pre-IIRAIRA, 113

Extreme hardship

conditional resident spouse status, waiver for, 82–84 marriage arrangements and exceptions for K-1 and K-2 visas, 96–97 questions to determine, 281–286 Requests for Evidence (RFEs), 171–172 waiver of inadmissibility, 155–161, 169–170

F

Failure to appear

interview in marriage-based cases, 89–90

False claim of U.S. citizenship

inadmissibility, grounds of, 136–137

Family preference system

overview, 1–2
Visa Bulletin, 253

Family relationships

terms and requirements, 2–4

Family-sponsored immigration

overview, 1–2

Family Sponsor Immigration Act of 2002

affidavit of support, 38

Family unit size

determination of, 191–192

Federal First Offender Act

expungements, 112–113

Federal poverty line

determination of, 191, 287–289

Fiancé(e)s

adjustment of status, 97–98
K-1 and K-2 visas, 96–98

Fiduciary duty

to nonclients, 230–231

Foreign convictions

inadmissibility, grounds of, 113–114

Foreign government officials

inadmissibility, grounds of engaging in severe violations of religious freedom, 119 exception for beliefs, statements, or associations, 124

Foreign policy, serious consequences for

inadmissibility, grounds of, 124

Form G-28

Notice of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, 215

Form I-129F

K-3 and K-4 visas, 98–100

Form I-130

generally, 22–33
affidavit of support. See Affidavit of support completing, 24–29 concurrent filing with Form I-485, 50
eligibility to file, 18
filing fee, 33
other forms and documents in application packet, 32 Petition for Alien Relative, 21–33
petition revocation, 36–38
request to reinstate I-130 petition based on §204(l) relief, 11, 255–256
supporting documentation, 29–32
where to file, 32–33
who may file, 23–24

Form I-212

consent to reapply for admission, 174–176
eligibility, 174–175
strategy and procedure, 175–176

Form I-360

Petition of Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, 11
VAWA packet contents, 211

Form I-485

completing, 50–58
filing fees, 60
other forms and documents included with, 58–60 revised as of June 26, 2017, 50
where to file, 60

Form I-601

Application for Waiver of Ground of Excludability, 161, 166

Form I-601A

Application for Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver, 170, 173

Form I-751

approval, 90
children included on, 87–88
denial, 90–91
filing fee, 84
filing procedures, 84
late filing, 86–87
multiple filings, 91

Form I-765

Application for Employment Authorization, 215

Form I-800A

Application for Determination of Suitability to Adopt a Child from a Convention Country, 41

Form I-824

filing for adjustment of status, 16

Form I-864. See Affidavit of supportForm I-864A

Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member, 191, 192–193

Form I-864P

poverty guidelines for affidavit of support, 196, 287–289

Form I-864W

in lieu of affidavit of support, 38, 101, 182

Former clients

conflict of interest, 243–244

Fraud

attorney sanctions for document fraud, 247–249 confidentiality and client fraud, 237–238
crimes of moral turpitude, 115
inadmissibility, grounds of, 133–136
 conduct inconsistent with nonimmigrant visa within 90 days of entry subject to presumption of material misrepresentation, 134
 final civil document fraud order, 138–139
 waivers, 166–167

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests

prior immigration orders, 152

GGenocide

inadmissibility, grounds of, 126

Good moral character

VAWA self-petitioners, 209–210
evidence of, 214, 291–299

Green cards

compared to permanent resident card, 74
LPR status, 1

Guilty pleas

inadmissibility, grounds of, 114

HHague Convention rules

adoption process, 38–41

Haitian Refugee and Immigrant Fairness Act (HRIFA)

abused spouses and children, 224–225
reinstatement of removal exceptions, 151

Hardship. See Extreme hardshipHealth inadmissibility, grounds of, 106–110. See also Inadmissibility, grounds of waivers, 161–165

Health care workers

inadmissibility, grounds of, 131

Homeland Security

rules on professional conduct for immigration practitioners, 246–249

Humanitarian reinstatement of revoked I-130, 12–13, 37

IIllegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 (IIRAIRA)

affidavit of support, 179
criminal convictions, 113
VAWA self-petitioners, certification of compliance with §384, 223

Immediate relatives

overview, 1
preference system and, 5–14

Immigration Act of 1990

two-year foreign residence requirement, 93

Immigration and Nationality Act

qualifying under §245(i), 45–49

Immigration Marriage Fraud Amendments of 1986 (IMFA)

purpose of, 73
“second generation” second-preference visa petition pending adjudication at effective date of act, 95
two-year foreign residence requirement, 93

Imprisonment, term of

Imprisonment, term of

inadmissibility, grounds of, 113

Inadmissibility, grounds of

generally, 105–153

categories, 105

child abduction (international), 150

criminal grounds, 110–120

controlled substance violations, 117

convictions, 110–114, 116–117

crimes of moral turpitude, 114–116

drug traffickers, 117–118

evaluating consequences of crime, 119–120 foreign government officials who engaged in severe violations of religious freedom, 119

guilty pleas, 114

prostitution and commercialized vice, 118 traffickers in persons, 119

documentary requirements, 139–140

health-related grounds, 106–110

communicable diseases, 106

drug abusers or addicts, 108–109

physical or mental disorders, 107–108

vaccination, lack of, 106–107

ineligibility for citizenship, 140–141

labor protection grounds, 131

miscellaneous grounds, 149–150

national security grounds, 120–127

Communist party or totalitarian party membership, 124–126

espionage, sabotage, export control violations, and other unlawful activities, 121 serious adverse consequences for foreign policy, 124

terrorist activities, 121–123

no waiver under §245(i), 46

overview, 105–106

polygamy, 149–150

previous immigration violations, 131–139

aliens present without permission or parole, 132

failure to attend removal proceedings, 132–133

false claim of U.S. citizenship, 136–137

final civil document fraud order, 138–139

fraud or willful misrepresentation, 133–136

smugglers, 137–138

stowaways, 137

prior removal orders, 141–149

public charge grounds, 127–131

re-entering U.S. without authorization, 147–149

reinstatement of removal, 150–153

tax avoidance as reason to renounce citizenship, 149–150

unlawful presence bars, 143–147

voting unlawfully, 149

waivers. See Waivers

Income. See Affidavit of support

Ineligibility for citizenship

inadmissibility, grounds of, 140–141

Informed consent

ethical issues, 241–242

individuals subject to NTA issuance, 257–258. See also Notice requirements

Inspection

by Customs and Border Protection, 35

International Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide

inadmissibility, grounds of, 126

International Religious Freedom Act of 1998

severe violations of religious freedom, 119

Interviews

adjustment of status, 60–61

consular processing, 69–71, 271–272

marriage-based cases, 33–34, 88–89

VAWA intake interview, 215–216

K

K visas

fiancé(e)s and their children (K-1 and K-2 visas), 96–98

nonimmigrants K-3 and K-4 visas, 98–100

L

Labor certification

inadmissibility, grounds of, 131

“Lawfully present”

defined, 144–147

Lawful permanent residents (LPRs)

proof of status, 2

Legitimacy

defined, 3

LIFE Act and LIFE Act Amendments of 2000

K visas, 98

reinstatement of removal exceptions, 151

MMail-order brides. See K visas*Manslaughter

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

Marriage

alien spouses affected by conditional residence provision, 75 battered spouse waiver, 81–82 children affected by conditional residence provision, 76–77
 conditional resident status, 74–92
 children, petitions and waivers for, 87–88 filing joint petition, 79
 notice from USCIS, 92
 reapplication for immigrant visa after termination of, 91–92 removal of, 78–87
 termination of, 77–78
 waiver of joint petition, 79–84
 death of spouse, 80
 divorce/annulment waiver, 80 documentary evidence of good-faith marriage, 84–85 extreme hardship waiver, 82–84
 failing marriage, 87
 fiancé(e) visas (K-1 and K-2), 96–98 filing fee and procedure, 84. See also Form I-751
 good-faith marriage, 206
 evidence of, 214–215
 immigration through, 73–103
 interview, 33–34, 88–89
 late petitions, 86–87
 overview, 73–74
 priority dates and, 8–9
 second-preference petitions, 94–95 traveling abroad at time petition filed, 85–86
 two-year foreign residence requirement, 93
 VAWA self-petitioners, 207

Means-tested benefit programs income test for affidavit of support, 195

 public charge standard, 127–131
 sponsored immigrants qualifying for, 187–188

Medical examinations

consular processing, 69, 273–275

Mental disorders

inadmissibility, grounds of, 107–108
 associated harmful behavior, 277–280
 waivers, 110, 161–162

Meritorious claims

ethical issues, 245–246

Military Selective Service Act

exemption of nonimmigrants from U.S. military service, 141

Misrepresentation. See FraudMoral turpitude, crimes of

inadmissibility, grounds of, 114–116

Motions to reopen

removal or deportation proceedings, 221–222, 225

Murder

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

NNational security grounds

inadmissibility, grounds of, 120–127

National Visa Center

assessment letter requesting missing documents or additional information, 66, 265–268 consular processing, role in, 64–65 fee bills, 261–264
 provisional waiver applications, 173

Naturalization

priority dates and, 10
 VAWA self-petitioners, 223–224

Nazi persecution participants

inadmissibility, grounds of, 126

Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act (NACARA)

abused spouses and children, 225
 reinstatement of removal exceptions, 151

Non-cash or supplemental assistance programs

public charge standard, 129

Notice requirements

conditional resident status, 92
 Notice to Appear (NTA) policy, 21, 77, 89–91, 174 informed consent for individuals subject to NTA issuance, 257–258

Nurses

inadmissibility, grounds of, 131

OOrphans

requirements, 4

Parents

P

Parents

defined, 3

Parole

aliens present without permission or parole, grounds of inadmissibility, 132 leaving United States with advance parole, not triggering three- or ten-year bars of unlawful presence, 143–144

PATRIOT Act. See USA PATRIOT Act of 2001

Petitioners

death of, 11–13, 36–37, 185–186
defined, 2

Petty offenses

crimes of moral turpitude, exception to, 116

Physical disorders

inadmissibility, grounds of, 107–108
waivers, 110, 161–162

Physicians

inadmissibility, grounds of, 131

Polygamy

inadmissibility, grounds of, 149–150

Poverty guidelines

for affidavit of support (Form I-864P), 196, 287–289 determining federal poverty line, 191

Preference system

categories, 5
family preference system, 1–2
immediate relatives and, 5–14
quota system, 5–8

Previous immigration violations

inadmissibility, grounds of, 131–139

Principal beneficiaries

defined, 8

Priority dates

age-out problem and, 13–14 death of petitioner and, 11–13
defined, 7
divorce and, 9–10
marriage and, 8–9
naturalization and, 10
pre-1977 Western Hemisphere priority dates, 14 retention of, 8–14

Prior removal orders

inadmissibility, grounds of, 141–149
reinstatement of removal, 150–153

Professional conduct. See Ethical issues

Prostitution

crimes of moral turpitude, 115
inadmissibility, grounds of, 118

Public charge

inadmissibility, grounds of, 127–131

Q

Quota system

described, 5–8

R

Rape

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

REAL ID Act of 2005

terrorist activities as grounds of inadmissibility, 121–123

Re-entering U.S. without authorization

inadmissibility, grounds of, 147–149

Refugees

waivers of inadmissibility, 176–178

Reinstatement of removal

inadmissibility, grounds of, 150–153
retroactive application, 151

Religious freedom

foreign government officials engaging in severe violations of, 119

Removal proceedings

denial of Form I-751, 90–91
failure to attend as grounds of inadmissibility, 132–133
motions to reopen, 221–222
prior orders as grounds of inadmissibility, 141–149 reinstatement of removal as grounds of inadmissibility, 150–153
retroactive application, 151
VAWA self-petitioners, 222–223

Robbery

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

S

Sabotage

inadmissibility, grounds of, 121

Self-petitions

for abused spouses and children. See Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

Siblings

defined, 3

preference category and quota, 5–6

Smugglers

inadmissibility, grounds of, 137–138

Sponsors. See Affidavit of supportSpouse. See also Marriage abused. See Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

preference category and quota, 5–6

requirements, 2–3

Stepchildren

divorce, effect of, 9–10

requirements, 3

Stowaways

inadmissibility, grounds of, 137

Substance abusers. See Drug abusersSubversive Activities Control Act of 1950

inadmissibility, grounds of, 124

Supporting documentation

Form I-130, 29–32

evidence of family relationship, 31–32

petitioner's evidence of U.S. citizenship, 31

TTax avoidance

renouncing citizenship for, grounds of inadmissibility, 149–150

Termination of registration

grounds for, 71–72

Terrorist activities

hold policy for certain persons subject to terrorism-related inadmissibility grounds (TRIG), 123

inadmissibility, grounds of, 121–123

Terrorist organizations

tiers of, 122

Theft

crimes of moral turpitude, 115

Totalitarian party membership

inadmissibility, grounds of, 124–126

Totality of circumstances test

public charge standard, 128–129

Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000

inadmissibility, grounds of, 119

Traveling abroad

aliens “unlawfully present” who depart U.S., 143 marriage petition filed during, 85–86

Two-year foreign residence requirement

marriage during deportation or exclusion proceedings, 93

U“Unlawfully present” and unlawful presence bars

defined, 144–147

departing U.S., 143

inadmissibility, grounds of, 141–142, 143–147

waivers, 147, 167–168, 171–174

Unmarried children

preference category and quota, 5–6

requirements, 4

Unrepresented third party

ethical issues, 244–245

USA PATRIOT Act of 2001

spouses and fiancé(e)s who died on September 11, 2001, relief for, 102–103

terrorist activities as grounds of inadmissibility, 121–123

VVaccination

inadmissibility, grounds of, 106–107

waivers, 110, 162–165

Vietnam “draft evaders”

pardon for, 141

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

generally, 203–225

abuse

defined, 209

evidence of, 215

adjustment of status, 217–222

background, 203–204

deferred action, 217

deportability ground eased for abused persons, 220–221

derivative spouses, 225

employment authorization, 217

extreme hardship, 156–157

good-faith marriage, 206

evidence of, 214–215

good moral character, 209–210

evidence of, 214, 291–299

intake interview, 215–216

naturalization, 223–224

public charge standard not applicable, 127

removal or deportation proceedings, 222–223

Visa Bulletin

- self-petitioning, 204–217
 - aging out protection, 207–208
 - citizenship or immigration status of abuser, 208–209
 - death of USC abuser, 209
 - derivative children, 207, 215
 - eligibility, 204
 - evidence of abuser's USC or LPR status, 213
 - evidence of applicant's physical presence, 214
 - evidence of qualifying relationship to abuser, 211–213
 - filing procedure, 216
 - marital relationship, 206–207
 - marriage or remarriage of self-petitioners, 207
 - packet contents, 210–215
 - parent-child relationship, 207
 - requirements, 205–210
 - residence, 206
- waiver of permanent bar inadmissibility, 127, 149, 161, 217–221

Visa Bulletin

- family-sponsored preferences, 253
- visa availability (from Visa Bulletin for September 2018), 6, 253

Visa fraud

- inadmissibility, grounds of, 134

Visas. See also specific types of visas

- issuance of, 1

Voluntary manslaughter

- crimes of moral turpitude, 115

Voting unlawfully

- inadmissibility, grounds of, 149

W

Waivers

- conditional resident status, waiver of joint petition, 79–84
- inadmissibility, grounds of, 110, 155–178
 - asylees and refugees, 176–178
 - communicable diseases, 110, 161–162
 - Communist party or totalitarian party membership, 126–127
- consent to reapply for admission, 174–176
- criminal grounds, 165–166
- eligibility requirements, 155–168
- extreme hardship, 155–168, 169–170
- filing fee, 168

- final civil document fraud order, 138–139
- fraud or misrepresentation, 166–167
- health-related grounds, 110, 161–165
- physical or mental disorders, 110, 161–162
- procedure for filing, 168–171
- smuggling, 137–138
- terrorism-related bars to admission, 122–123
- unlawful presence bars, 147, 167–168, 171–174
- vaccination, lack of, 110, 162–165
- VAWA self-petitioners, 149, 161, 217–221
- interview in marriage-based cases, 89
- provisional, 171–174

Welfare programs. See Means-tested benefit programs

Widow(er)s

- petitions for permanent residence, 100–103