10-day notice of filing, see Notice of filing
30-day “quiet” period, see Post-recruitment 30-day SWA job order, see State workforce agencies 180-day rule, 27
§241(i), grandfathered workers priority date, 140–41

A

Ability to pay
documentation, 10
Ability to pay
documentation at client intake, 13–14, 130–31 Advertising
appraising employer of role in advertising and notice requirements, 97–98 drafting ad text, 96–97 description of job, 182 drafting ads, 26–27, 96–97 geographic area of employer in ads, 182–84 journal ads, 184–85
local and ethnic newspapers recruitment for professional occupations, 196 multiple job opportunities, 182 name and address of employer in ads, 181–82 name of employer in ads, 181–82 newspaper ads, 181–85
selection of general-circulation newspaper, 181 Sunday ads, 24

Alternative job requirements audit trigger, proving substantial equivalence, 281–82 determination of wage level, 168
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 52–53
Kellogg language, use in PERM applications, 203–210

Alternatives to PERM, 254–58
Appeals, see BALCA review Asylum
as alternative to PERM, 258 Attorney and client
dual representation, 12
initial contact and information exchange, 11–15 role of attorney in labor certification process, 193 spOTTING difficult cases, 245–49 dealing with client reaction thereto, 253–54

Audit file (compliance file) complete and properly endorsed PWD, 174–75 final adjustments during 30-day post-recruitment “quiet” period, 31 obligation to maintain, 101
teachers (higher education), see Special Recruitment Audits, 267–86
(see also Audit file) anticipating and preparing for specific requests, 278–79 business necessity, proof of, 279–81 documentation requested in audits, 270–73 experience gained not substantially comparable, 283 infeasibility to train, 277, 283 layoff requirements, compliance with, 283–84 missing documentation, strategies for remedying, 276–77 recruitment report, 188–89, 273–74 resumés of applicants, 277 SWA job order, deciding whether to include, 272–73 error correction, 276 improper payments by employer, 278 improvements for PERM audit program, 286 meaning of what a PERM audit is, 267–69 non-normal job requirements, 151 random audits, preparing for, 270 sample audit notifications, 313–15 sample response to audit notifications, 316–17 triggers for audits, 278–81 alternative job requirements, 281–82 closely held corporations, 285–86 combination of occupations, 280–81 degree equivalencies, 282 employee referral programs, 284–85
foreign-language requirement, 280 live-in domestic workers, 285 SVP level for occupation exceeding job requirements, 279–80 types of PERM audits, 269–70

B

BALCA review, 174, 305–27, 333–34 assesSing the case, 305–9 drafting motions and appeals, 309–11 evolution of PERM, BALCA role, 369–71 favoring the motion or request for review, 311 motions to reconsider, 308 preparing motion for review, 309–11 regulatory requirements, 308 strategic considerations, 308–9 requesting BALCA review, 306–7 sample motion/appeal brief, 323–27 supervised recruitment, recent developments, 291–92

Beneficiaries, see Employees/beneficiaries Board of Alien Labor Certification
Appeals, see BALCA review
Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) non-normal requirements, 23–24

Business necessity
audits
documentation, 274–78
proof of business necessity, 279–81

Clients, see Attorney and client Combination of occupations
as audit trigger, 280–81
ETA Form 9098, 57
position’s duties requiring, 111–12

Compliance file, see Audit file Conflicts of interest, 12

Costs associated with PERM process audits investigating improper payments by employer, 278 employer’s obligation to pay, 93–94
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 67–68

Credentials evaluation, see Education
Criminal-related grounds of inadmissibility, 135–36

D

Davis-Bacon Act, 23, 154
Deadlines, see Timing and deadlines
Debarment, 332–33
Degree equivalency, see Education

Diversity visa (DV)
as alternative to PERM, 258

Document retention, 334 DOL, see Labor, Department of Domestic workers, live-in

as audit trigger, 285
on ETA Form 9898, 57–58
experience required, 226–27
infeasibility to train, 236

Dual representation, 12

E

E-3 status
issues related to foreign workers in E-3 status, 141

EB-1 through EB-5 categories, see Employment-based preference categories Education

comparison of SVP and O*NET guidelines, 79 credentials evaluation, 121 degree equivalency, 19–20
as audit trigger, 282
ensuring I-140 approval, 122–23, 124–26 experience, evaluation of, 126 identifying employer’s requirements, 114–15 different field, degree in, 115
documentation, 120
EB-2 vs. EB-3, see Employment-based preference categories eliciting education requirements, 90–92
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 49–50, 52
gained while working for PERM employer, 18 related field, degree in, 126–27 requirements, 120
students, see F-1 status; Students teachers (higher education), see Special Recruitment three-year degrees, 114–15 time period when education must be completed, 228–29 Employee qualifications, see Minimum job requirements Employee referral programs (ERPs)
as audit trigger, 284–85
on ETA Form 9098, 65
as recruitment step, 199–200 Employees / beneficiaries alien-related issues to spot, 133–47 familial relationships, see Familial relationships inadmissible aliens, see Inadmissibility information about, filling ETA Form 9098, 70–73 nonimmigrant status, issues relating to, 134–38 (see also specific types of visas) ownership interest in employer corporation, 87 perspectives of employees in PERM process, 3–5 proving that qualifications are met, see Minimum job requirements questionnaires, generally, 14–15, 20 requirements of ETA 9098 must be met at time of filing, 127 retention of, PERM application as tool, 85 roving employees, 88, 129–30, 169 Employers
consequences of failing to get proper work authorization, apprising employers of, 101–02 d/b/a and corporate-name issues, 87, 128 discerning the “employer” in PERM process, 3–5 ETA Form 9098, employer information section, 44–46 familial relationships between employer and foreign worker, 87 illegal or fraudulent activity, 332–33 location of worksite, 88 multiple worksites, see Multiple worksites name and FEIN, 128
number of employees, issues involving, 85–86 position offered, explaining difficulty in fulfilling, 89–90 questionnaires, generally, 13–14, 84–93 responsibilities, appraising employers of role, 93–101
in advertising and notice requirements, 97–98 in application review, 98–99 with compliance file, duty to maintain, 101 with DOL, 99–101
in drafting job description and advertising text, 96–97 financial obligations, 93–95 in recruitment process, 95–96 spotting employer-related issues, 83–102 Employment agencies
use in recruiting for professional occupations, 198 Employment authorization, see Work authorization Employment-based preference categories dropping from EB-2 to EB-3, 19
EB-1 vs. Special Recruitment, 363–64
EB-1A as alternative to PERM, 255
EB-1B as alternative to PERM, 255–56
EB-1C as alternative to PERM, 257
EB-2 qualifications, 124–26
national interest waiver (NIW) as alternative to PERM, 252
EB-3 qualifications, 124
EB-4 religious workers as alternative to PERM, 258
EB-5 as alternative to PERM, 257
Equivalent degree, see Education
ETA Form 9098, 39–81, 208–10 (see also specific topics addressed by form) amendments, 77
DOL sponsorship inquiry, employer availability to respond, 34 DOL using form as offensive weapon, 212–13 drafting application to ensure I-140 approval, 119–31 beneficiary’s qualifications, evaluation of, 119–27 changing worksite locations, 129–30 employer information, 127–28 job titles, importance of, 128–29 prevailing wage, ability to pay, 130–31 duplicate forms, request for, 77 Electronic submission, 34–35 line-by-line tips and instructions, 43–75 registering for online completion of FORMS, 39–43 employer reorganization, 77 equipment correction, 276 errors on form, 212
filing, 33–35
modification after filing, 212–14 multiple filings, 76
review during 30-day “quiet” period, 32 signature, 128
validity period, 76–77
withdrawal of form and refile filing, 75–76

Experience
(see also Training)
comparison of SVP and O*NET guidelines, 79
documentation of, 121–122 special or specific requirements, 122 eliciting experience requirements, 90–92 equivalency of experience and bachelor’s degree, 126 ETA Form 9098, filling out, 50–52, 73–74 earned after joining PERM employer, but with a different entity, 226 as contractor working for PERM employer, 226–27 with predecessor or related corporate entity, 225–27 during previous employment with PERM employer, 224–25 while with PERM employer, 18–19, 218–24, 287 letters from former employers, 20 no experience in position to be certified, 227–28 progressive experience, increasing probability of EB-2 classification, 126 questionnaire for employee, 20 substantial comparability of experience, 218–22 drafting Form ETA 9098 to show incomparability, 219–22
teachers (higher education), see Special Recruitment

F

F-1 status
issues related to postgraduate F-1 students, 141–42

Familial issues, 145–47 aged-out children, 146–47 marital status of foreign worker, effect of, 145 spouses and cross-chargeability, 146

Familial relationships between employer and foreign worker, 87

Family-based immigration
as alternative to PERM, 258

Federal agencies
(see also specific agencies) path from PERM to green card, 1–3

Filing
of forms, see specific forms issues associated with filing, 85–87 notice of, see Notice of filing post-filing tasks, 35

Foreign-language requirement assessing strategic value of requiring, 111
as audit trigger, 280
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 56
Form ETA 9098, see ETA Form 9098
Form I-140
drafting PERM application to ensure I-140 approval, 119–31 and path from PERM to green card, 2–3

Copyright © 2019 American Immigration Lawyers Association
Portability

Post-recruitment 30-day “quiet” period, 27, 30–33

Post-recruitment, 30-day “quiet” period audit file, final adjustments, 31 ETA 9098, review of, 32 preliminary recruitment results, review of, 31–32
tips, 32–33

Preferred job qualifications
vs. minimum job requirements, 15–16

Prevaling wage determination (PWD), 153–77
(see also Ability to pay; Wage offer) 100 percent of PW, 154–55 advertising after obtaining PWD, 184 BLS data, use of, 157 challenging the PWD (see also BALCA review)
creating appeal record, 172–74 chart of impact of job requirements on wage levels, 78
employer’s obligation to pay, 94–95
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 47
forms and procedures for PWD, 169–71 job description, importance in PWD, 158– 60 O*NET guide, 149
reviewing or challenging PWDs, 21–23 SOC code, searching for, 159–60 submitting PW request, 21 surveys, 21
criteria, 155–56
median, use of, 156–57
past policy, continuation of, 156–57 private surveys, 155
teachers (higher education), see Special Recruitment
tips, 23
validity date of PWD, 171–72 wage level, determination of, 156–64 alternative job requirements, 164 worksheet, 159–64, 172–73 wage sources, identifying, 154

Priority dates
§241(i), foreign workers grandfathered under, 144–45
capturing earlier priority date, 143–44 previously filed LC petitions, 144 spouse of foreign worker, cross-chargeability, 146

Professional occupations, recruitment for,
see Recruitment

Professors, see Special Recruitment (college and university teachers)

Promotion, likelihood of effect on preparing application, 127

Proving qualifications, see Minimum job requirements

Q

Qualifications, see Minimum job
requirements

Questionnaires, see
Employees/beneficiaries; Employers;
Recruitment

“Quiet” period, see Post-recruitment

R

Recruitment, 24–30, 179–93
30-day quiet period, see Post-recruitment advertising, see Advertising attorney’s role, 193
certifying applicants follow-up, 29–30
necessity of, 189–90
questionnaires, 187–88
telephone interviews, 187–88 timeliness and manner, 188–89
deadlines, see Timing and deadlines documenting
recruitment report, 188–89, 273–74
duplicating recruitment methods, avoiding, 188 employer’s role in recruitment process, 95–96
ETA Form 9098, filling out, 58–70
job orders, see State workforce agencies (SWAs) mandatory efforts for all occupations, 24–25 notice of filing, see Notice of filing “open to any U.S. worker” requirement of 20 CFR §656.10(c)(8), 261–65 procedures, 180–88
professional occupations additional requirements, 25–26, 62–63, 186–87, 195–201
ads for, 196
company website, use of, 197
employee referral programs, 199–200 job fairs, 198
job-search websites, 198
local and ethnic newspapers, 200
on-campus recruiting and placement
offices, 200
PERM Appendix A, 196–97
private employment agencies, 198 radio and TV ads, 200–01 trade or professional organizations, 199 verification of procedures, 197 reduction in recruitment (RIR), 374–75 Special Recruitment, see Special Recruitment (college and university teachers)
supervised recruitment, 287–304, 330–31 issues to expect, 289–90
overview, 287–89
recent developments at BALCA, 291–92 sample notification, 293–97 sample recruitment instructions, 298–301 sample recruitment report instructions, 302–304
teachers (higher education), see Special Recruitment
timeframe calculations, 180, 192–93

tips, 30
Reduction in recruitment (RIR), 374–75
Roving employees, 88, 129–30, 169

S

Schedule A, Group I
as alternative to PERM, 258

Schedule A, Group II
as alternative to PERM, 256–57
as alternative to Special Recruitment, 364

Service Contract Act, 23, 154

SOC code
shopping for an SOC code, 159–60

Special Recruitment (college and university teachers), 337–66
advertising, 344–50
audit file, 359–60
basic labor certification process, when advisable, 364–65
business necessity issues, 353 drafting the ETA Form 9089, job requirements and recruiting information, 353–55
EB-1 route, advantages of, 363–64 educational requirements, “All But Dissertation” issues, 348–49 experience requirements, 349 H-1B process, bypassing, 339–41 inadvisable situations, 360–65 institutions that can pursue, 341 nonimmigrant status making Special Recruitment unavailable or inadvisable, 360–63
notice of filing, 358–59
overview, 338–41
positions that qualify, 342 prevailing wage determination, 355–58 processing times suggesting that Special Recruitment inadvisable, 362–63 satisfaction of advertised requirements, 349–50
Schedule A, Group II as alternative, 364 statutory and regulatory sources; agency guidelines, 337–38
step-by-step process, 343–60

Specific Vocational Guidelines (SVP) audit trigger, requirements exceeding SVP level for occupation, 279–80
comparison of SVP and O*NET guidelines for education and experience, 83 determining SVP classification, 108–11

Standard Occupational Classification, see
SOC code

State workforce agencies (SWAs) job order, 24, 185–86 30-day requirement, 27
inclusion with response to PERM audit, 272–73

Step-by-step guide, 11–37
(see also specific steps)

Students
(see also F-1 status)
on-campus recruiting and placement
offices, 63, 200

Supervised recruitment, see Recruitment Suspension by DOL, 332–33
SVP, see Specific Vocational Guidelines
SWAs, see State workforce agencies
Training
- Documentation of, 121
- ETA Form 9098, filling out, 50
- Infeasibility to train, 222–24, 233–41
- Demonstrating for audit, 277, 283
- Documenting, 240
- Impossibility of training, 239–40
- Legislative background, 234–35
- Personnel changes, 236–38
- Regulatory standards, 236–40
- Technological or economic changes, 238–39
- "Reasonable period of on-the-job training," 190–91

Two-year home residency requirement
- Issues related to foreign workers in J-1 status, 139–41

Work authorization
- Consequences of failing to get proper work authorization, apprising employers of, 101–02
- Retention of work authorization until grant of LPR status, advantage of timely filed PERM application, 86–87

Wage offer
- (see also Prevailing wage determination)
- On ETA Form 9089, 47–48
- ETA Form 9098, filling out, 47–48
- Increasing wage offer, 22
- Issues associated with, 88–89
- Permissible components of compensation, 157–58

Websites
- DOL and SWA websites, registration with, 14
- Employer’s website, use in professional recruiting, 63–64, 197
- Job search websites, use in professional recruiting, 198

University faculty
- See Special Recruitment

Unlawful presence
- 137–38

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)
- And overall PERM process, 2–3, 6–7